

LETTERING

Motives of Nature

The word "Lettering" is written in a white, elegant cursive script. It is set against a background of a white brushstroke that has been applied over a gradient of green and blue. The brushstroke has a textured, painterly appearance with visible bristles and varying opacity.

The modern design introduces interesting new decoration trends into interiors. Today, one of such current trends is «lettering» - a new stylish trend in the field of decoration. Lettering is a term that covers drawn letters and compositions assembled from them.

The task is to get a unique inscription emphasizing the special meaning of the phrase.

If you combine the beautiful world of nature and animals with lettering, you can get a stylish picture for an eclectic interior.

Decorating with letters today has grown into something big, now it has become an interesting activity for the whole family, children or couple in love. We see beautiful wood carved inscriptions on postcards and pillows. And now they adorn embroidery and diamond mosaic paintings.
